

20 Online Activities in Spanish for Kids

Read an online book in Spanish.	Learn a Spanish clean-up song and tidy your room or sing Spanish while washing your hands .	Listen to a familiar nursery rhyme in Spanish.	Play a game on Árbol ABC or Spanish Town .	Watch Salsa Episodes and do an activity .
Do Yoga in Spanish .	Watch/listen to a song from Super Simple Spanish .	Do an activity on Online Free Spanish .	Practice your drawing skills by listening to Spanish.	Read some Fables in simple Spanish .
Download a Spanish app and play.	Listen to a Fairy Tale in Spanish with slow audio .	Watch a cartoon in Spanish (on YouTube or Netflix).	Listen to a Podcast in Spanish .	Watch Episodes of "Oh Noah!" - a PBS show for learners.
Do a craft following directions in Spanish .	Set up a playlist to listen to while playing.	Watch a movie in Spanish or with subtitles.	Cook together by watching kids cook in Spanish.	Send text messages to someone you know who speaks Spanish.

25 Offline Spanish/Cultural Activities

Draw a monster with sidewalk chalk and label the body parts.	Make a Bingo board to practice new words.	Do a shape hunt in your house.	Make a worry doll.	Label some parts of your house. Try to use those words during the day!
Trace Alphabet letters in Spanish (or form with Play-dough).	Make a play restaurant with menus and practice ordering food.	Turn a clock in your house into a flower or sun with labels to practice saying the time.	Make a tissue paper flag.	Gather some objects and put on a blindfold. Try to guess each object by feeling it.
Play "Simon Says" in Spanish.	Do a blindfolded taste test and practice saying "me gusta/no me gusta."	Write Spanish words in shaving cream.	Make picture and word cards for any theme and play Go Fish.	Make "ojos de dios."
Draw your family tree and label in Spanish.	Play Mano Nerviosa to practice numbers.	Do a color scavenger hunt.	Read a book in Spanish and create a comic-strip summary.	Cook something by following a recipe in Spanish. (Free download - code: EVERYLITTLEHELPS at checkout)
Make picture and word cards for any theme and play memory.	Write a letter to someone who speaks Spanish.	Make tissue paper flowers.	Play a board game or card game and speak Spanish.	Make puppets and write a skit.

20 Print-and-Do Activities for Kids

Print and make a minibook about Peru.	Practice numbers 1-80 with Llama Hidden Picture Coloring	Make an "All About Me" mini-book.	Print and make an "All About Me" banner.	Learn terms for foods in Spanish with these game cards.
Solve Puzzles to Learn about Rooms in the House and Chores	Print and complete activities about Spain. (Credit: Rachel Young)	Learn the names and capitals of Spanish-speaking countries.	Do a word search about colors.	Make a thankful mini-book.
Practice zoo animals with this "I have, who has" game.	Print out chore cards in Spanish and create a routines chart.	Complete a 15-page Spanish pack from Mundo de Pepita	Make puppets to go with the song "Los pollitos dicen"	Print and make a book about the days of the week.
Make a mini-book about shapes in Spanish	Read a Fable in Spanish and do some activities.	Print and make a mini-book about farm animals in Spanish.	Complete this Spanish Choice board for grades K-2	Print and play Apple to Apples with a DIY game.

Spanish Activities for Beginners Part A

GREETINGS Click here or scan for printables. Click here for the story.	Print and cut out the new word cards.	Listen to the new words on IG @spanishathome	Draw a portrait with your name and how you feel.	Pick a greetings song to learn.
	Make a mini-book about emotions.	Create a cartoon with a get-to-know-you conversation.	Read the story about Miguel and Rosa. (listen at @spanishathome on Instagram)	Watch the " ¿Cómo se llama? " video.
BODY PARTS, ACTIONS, & OBJECTS Click here for printables. Click for Story A and Story B.	Print and cut out the new word cards.	Listen to the new words on IG @spanishathome	Use the object cards to label things in your house.	Pick a body parts song to learn.
	Play "I have, who has" to practice parts of the body, and objects.	Go outside and do body outline in chalk. Label the parts.	Read the school stories (or listen at @spanishathome on Instagram)	Do the matching words/sentences /pictures activity.
NUMBERS Click here for printables. Click here for the story.	Print and cut out the new word cards.	Listen to the new words on IG @spanishathome	Play Numbers Bingo and learn a numbers song .	Play Mano Nerviosa to practice the numbers.
	Review body parts by watching this video .	Read about monsters and match the pictures.	Read the monster description and draw it.	Read the Julio story (or listen at @spanishathome on Instagram)

Spanish Activities for Beginners Part B

FAMILY Click here or scan for printables. Click here for the story.	Print and cut out the new word cards.	Listen to the new words on IG @spanishathome	Draw and label your family tree (or a famous family like The Incredibles)	Listen to Baby Shark in Spanish to practice members of the family.
	Listen to this book naming family members.	Play Go Fish or Memory with all your word cards so far.	Listen to this song about family members.	Read the family puzzles and match to the picture.
	Read the story about Ana's family and do the guessing activity. (listen on IG at @spanishathome)	Draw a picture of yourself and write how old you are.
Telling Time (Same printables as the section above.)	Read the sheet that talks about telling time.	Listen to the clock terms on IG @spanishathome	If your family has a clock, cut out flower petals or sun rays to label each hour.	Play "What Time is it, Mr. Fox?" in Spanish.
	Read the clock times and write the hands to show the time.	Use all the Spanish you have learned so far to talk about the differences in the "Spot it" sheets.	Listen to the songs "Chumbala," a classic song for kids in Spanish.	Watch this video about asking what time it is.

Spanish Activities for Beginners Part C

Adjectives and Colors Click here for printables. Click here for the story.	Print and cut out the new word cards.	Listen to the new words on IG @spanishathome / watch this video about colors.	Play Go Fish or Memory with all your word cards so far.	Listen to a ¿Te gusta..? song from Super Simple Spanish.
	Read this book about big and small animals.	Read this book about mixing colors (nube = cloud).	Do the “Me gusta/No me gusta” activity,, using words you know so far in Spanish.	Draw or list words that go with each adjective.
	Call or text any Spanish speakers you know for the colors graph.	Do the “All About Me” page.”	Read the story about the birthday present.
Activities and Hobbies Click here or scan for printables. Click here for the story.	Print and cut out the new word cards.	Listen to the new words on IG @spanishathome	Play Go Fish or Memory with all your word cards so far.	Watch/listen to this song about sports
	Read this book about reading.	Watch this video about hobbies in Spanish.	Watch this about what sports you like.	Read this book to review family members and hobbies.
	Complete the sheet showing what activities you like, can do, and can't do.	Call or text any Spanish speakers you know for the activities graph.	Read the story about Ana and Alex. (listen at @spanishathome on Instagram)	